

QUESTION 1

GENUINE U.S. CURRENCY

That's incorrect. The $100 note should have a watermark of Benjamin Franklin, not Abraham Lincoln.

COUNTERFEIT CURRENCY

Great job! That's correct. This note does not have the correct watermark for a genuine $100 note.

GENUINE U.S. CURRENCY

Great job! That's correct. The ink on the numeral in the lower right-hand corner should change from green to black on the 1996 style note.

COUNTERFEIT CURRENCY

That's incorrect. The color-shifting ink on this style of note should change from green to black.

QUESTION 3

GENUINE U.S. CURRENCY

Great job! That's correct. The security thread in the $50 note glows yellow when exposed to UV light and reads USA 50.

COUNTERFEIT CURRENCY

That's incorrect. The security thread in the $50 note glows yellow when exposed to UV light and reads USA 50.

QUESTION 4
